This Week for Dunwoody Rotary

Holiday Luncheon This Friday, Dunwoody Nature Center and a Look at the Rest of December

Join us this Friday for the annual holiday luncheon, a chance to greet each other and enjoy some music, some recognitions and fellowship! Some of us will gather at the Dunwoody Country Club at 11:00 am; others will join by Zoom at https://us02web.zoom.us/j/86202979419. If you're joining by Zoom, be sure to log in by 11:15 so you don't miss the beautiful singing voice of our 2019-20 GRSP student Yemariam Workneh. Then we'll all enjoy some inspiring words, lunchtime music by Jed Shumway, and some recognitions and announcements. The program will end by 1 pm. And don't forget about Toys for Tots; you can read about it later in this bulletin.

This Saturday, you can join our crew at the Dunwoody Nature Center for a work day - scheduled from 9am to noon. Bring your gloves, masks and a gardening tool.

Then relax and make the most of the holiday season. There won't be a Thirsty Thursday gathering in December. We'll be back together for our first meeting of 2021 on January 8, and back at work in the community in the New Year.

Thanks for all that all of you do, and all the best this holiday season.

Simply go to AmazonSmile (https://smile.amazon.com/) and designate the Dunwoody Rotary Charitable Fund as your charity. Then, place your Amazon order through the AmazonSmile website.
