Join us this Friday at the AC Hotel to welcome Nehemiah H. Lamb, Founder of Unique Individual Ranch, a 501c(3) nonprofit organization that provides childcare focused on developing independence, cultivating positive social interactions, and community inclusion among children with special needs and disabilities,

Nehemiah was born and raised in Atlanta. Growing up, he had his first experience working with children in church, where he had the opportunity to become an assistant Sunday school teacher in a Pre-K class and later became a game leader on Wednesday night for the youth. He continued his work with young people throughout high school, college and after graduation, and became the Children's Services Director for the YMCA. After working hard to incorporate inclusive programs for the special needs children at the YMCA, he felt a calling from God to do more – to pursue
