Executive Director of Leadership Perimeter, a community leadership nonprofit that has been serving the region since 1986.

Before venturing into the nonprofit space, Rosalyn spent most of her career in the luxury hospitality industry, overseeing various aspects of the hotel business with an emphasis in sales and marketing. Her earliest days were shaped in her hometown and "Entertainment Capital of the World," Las Vegas, working in some of the largest hotels in the world. [read more]

Service Opportunity

Join the Anchor Place Respite Volunteer Team - Training June 11

As Anchor Place provides respite care services in Dunwoody, more volunteers are needed ... to spend time with the people they're serving and participate in all the fun activities - including noodle hockey (pictured here). The next Volunteer Training session is set for Tuesday, June 11 from 9 - 11:30 AM. You can register at

Fun and Community

Celebrate Freedom with Rotary

Fourth of July Fun with the Dunwoody Family of Rotary!

Join us as we celebrate Independence Day at the Dunwoody Fourth of July parade, the largest in Georgia. Don't miss this long-standing tradition! Even longer than this photo from the 2005 Dunwoody parade!

Volunteer opportunities are abundant. For Parade Walkers, contact Denise Brodsky at denise@clubhouseatlanta.org. For other volunteer opportunities, reach out to Paula Shiver at paula@perimeterchamber.com.

District Conference 2025

Jekyll Island Hosts DC United in April 2025: Register Now!

You won't want to miss the first ever multi-district conference on Jekyll Island from April 24-27, 2025. We are expecting 1000-1500 Rotarians to join us, so get your rooms booked before the sell out. We have blocks at every hotel and at a variety of price points, but these rooms will fill up quickly.

Visit GeorgiaUnitedDC.com to register and link to all the available room blocks. We can't wait to turn Jekyll into Rotary Island next spring!
