Opportunity to Serve

Calling All Essay Judges

All these people are celebrating the Laws of Life Essay Contest, and young people sharing their reflections on things like perseverance, integrity, gratitude, and responsibility. Essay judging is one of the most meaningful ways Rotarians can get involved in the Georgia Laws of Life Contest - and your opportunity to be a judge is coming up soon!

Judges read students' reflections on a character trait—often describing the experience of essay writing as eye-opening and deeply rewarding.

- Judges are typically Rotarians from sponsoring clubs (and we are - and have been - since George Stewart first got us involved with Laws of Life)
- Judges work in teams
- Judging takes place in February and March
- Training and scoring rubrics are provided
