We are in bottle collection mode! Please consider donating a bottle of whiskey for our event on November 19.

The Best Thing to do: Go to our partner at Dunwoody Beverage (located in Dunwoody Village) and buy off the list. The owner, Bob Patel, will donate 10% of all items purchased at that location to our Rotary club. He has the list at his store and will be happy to guide you. There's a variety of prices from $40 to $300.

The Easiest Thing to do: If you prefer to make a cash donation and make the Whiskey Committee do the shopping, that can also be done! Just let Neal MacDonald or Juan Lago know.

The Show-Off thing to do: If you have something else you'd like to donate from somewhere else that you think is awesome, also great! We'll take it all.

We'll be looking to close out our selection of whiskey by October 4.

Getting to Know You

Jackie Cuthbert: Communicator, GRSP Host Mom and Anchor Place Volunteer

Jackie Cuthbert's Rotary journey began in the 1980s in the Bay Area of California, where she met her husband, Scott, on a blind date. Scott was an active Rotarian, and together they attended the 1991 Rotary International Convention in Mexico City where they celebrated their first wedding anniversary.

After that convention, Jackie knew she wanted to join Rotary herself but it took a move to Atlanta in 1994 to get there. While attending a district conference where Scott organized the House of Friendship, she spoke about her aspirations with Milton Baker, one of our club's original members, who strongly encouraged her to join the Rotary Club of Dunwoody. Jackie was inducted in March 1998 and went on to serve as Club President during the 2005-2006 Rotary year. [read more]
